from the author of the sunday times bestseller cocaine nights the story of suburban london transformed into an exotic dreamworld

j g ballard once declared that the most truly alien planet is earth and in his science fiction he abandoned the traditional imagery of rocket ships traveling to distant galaxies to address the otherworldliness of this world the empires of j g ballard is the first extensive study of ballard s critical vision of nation and empire of the political geography of this planet paddy examines how ballard s self perceived status as an outsider and exile the sheppertonian from shanghai generated an outlook that celebrated worldliness and condemned parochialism this book brings to light how ballard wrestled with notions of national identity and speculated upon the social and psychological implications of the post war transformation of older models of empire into new imperialisms of consumerism and globalization presenting analyses of ballard s full body of work with its tales of reverse colonization psychological imperialism the savagery of civilization estranged englishmen abroad and at home and multinational communities built on crime the empires of j g ballard offers a fresh perspective on the fiction of j g ballard the empires of j g ballard an imagined geography offers a sustained and highly convincing analysis of the imperial and post imperial histories and networks that shape and energise ballard s fictional and non fictional writings to what extent can ballard be considered an international writer what happens to our understanding of his post war science fictions when they are opened up to the language and logics of post colonialism and what creative and critical roles do the spectres of empire play in ballard s visions of modernity paddy follows these and other fascinating lines of enquiry in a study that is not only essential reading for ballard students and scholars but for anyone interested in the intersections of modern and contemporary literature history and politics jeanette baxter anglia ruskin university shanghai made my father arriving in england after ww2 he was a person of the world who d witnessed extremes of human experience and remained the outsider observing life from his home in shepperton 1930s shanghai paris of the east was a mix of international sophistication and violence unfettered capitalism and acute poverty american cars martinis and coca cola a place marked by death and war it had a profound influence on my father and his imagination dr paddy s fascinating book explores my father s fiction within an international context and offers a profound reading of a man who always kept his eyes and mind open to the world fay ballard peter brigg examines the life and work of british author j g ballard from his science fiction to his mainstream fiction starmont reader s guide 26 providing an extensive reassessment of dominant and recurring themes in ballard s writing including historical violence pornography post 9 11 politics and urban space this book also engages with ballard s late modernism his experimentation with style and form and his sustained interests in psychology and psychopathology

the author of empire of the sun and other acclaimed novels and stories british science fiction writer j g ballard is here given a penetrating analysis his work being explored in terms of its internal coherence its continuity and development and its mythic and metaphysical aspects ballard s fiction is widely considered to be a critique of our secular rational technological culture but this study departs from earlier ones that label him a fatalistic or nihilistic writer obsessed with entropy devolution and dissolution in showing him instead to be most deeply concerned with the redemption and regeneration of the human psyche with ballard s focus so much on visionary perception and mystical transcendence gregory stephenson argues for his placement in the romantic visionary tradition a comprehensive examination of ballard's work this study traces his output and accomplishments over four decades exploring their thematic development ballard is considered in relation to a number of british and american writers of the post world war ii era within and beyond the often too rigidly applied categorization of science fiction as well as to poets and novelists of the past new and cutting edge work in animality studies human animal studies and posthumanism representations of animality continue to proliferate in various kinds of literary and cultural texts this pioneering volume explores the critical interface between animal and animality studies marking out the terrain in relation to twentieth century literature and film the range of texts considered here is intentionally broad answering questions like how do contemporary writers such as amitav ghosh terry tempest williams and indra sinha help us to think about not only animals but also humans as animals what kinds of creatures are being constructed by contemporary artists such as patricia piccinini alexis rockman and michael pestel how do animality animate such diverse texts as the poetry of two women publishing under the name of amichael field or an early film by thomas edison depicting the electrocution of a circus elephant named topsy connecting these issues to fields as diverse as environmental studies and ecocriticism queer theory gender studies feminist theory illness and disability studies postcolonial theory and biopolitics the volume also raises further questions about disciplinarity itself while hoping to inspire further work beyond the human in future interdisciplinary scholarship key features10 provocative case studies focused on representations and discourses of animals and animality in twentieth and twenty first century literature art and film in english new work from both internationally renowned and emerging figures in the burgeoning fields of animality studies human animal studies and posthumanism suggesting innovative and significant new directions to explore broad introduction to the kinds of questions scholars in the humanities have considered in relation to animals and animality
