atkinson uses qoheleth s work ethic to provide an analysis of ecclesiastes utilising the writings of st bonaventure and martin luther reading ecclesiastes within a penitential framework bonaventure offers a version of the contemptus mundi tradition that is rooted in his metaphysics his commentary is ethically significant for the way he detects the vice of curiosity precipitating a perceptual rupture wherein vanity comes to signify sin and guilt luther on the other hand interprets solomon as a wise economic political administrator who preaches the good news of god s involvement in quotidian existence this understanding enables luther to read ecclesiastes eschatologically with labour being seen as a locus of divine activity one may thus read solomon s refrain as an invitation to labour with the expectation of receiving god s gifts in the present finally atkinson suggests that ecclesiastes enhances current conversations regarding the theology and ethics of work by working the doctrinal foci of protology and eschatology through christology the presence of the word then can be found now only in the preaching and sacraments of the church but also in the labour of the worker in what questions are scholars of horace currently interested what opportunities does this core roman author offer twenty first century critics this book discusses recent work on horace by genre moving from the early satires through to the late epistles it also suggests new scholarly approaches to the poet providing various ways of interpreting horace s background genre categories metaphors and ethics the target readership consists of scholars new to the field seeking to familiarize themselves swiftly with the formidable bibliography and of specialists interested in a different perspective on this important but notoriously evasive author truth be told we want an over night change in our lifes there are many moments when the actual reality is very difficult to handle and looks like we have no escape at all we dream of a quantum jump even if we dont understand the concept very well in few words the reality sucks and we

dream of a life that we will never have because deep inside us we don't really believe we will ever meet this reality we have a fake attitude that we are looking for change but this attitude is just a mask for our fears as they are not to be seen so we wonder today if there is a way of how our lives can be changed in what we think that should be better for us does it exist a system that we could follow and achieve our dream life but it must be a simple way otherwise we know that we will not follow the path everything is happening is related to us and everything could happen is also related to us the magic answer because we are looking only for magic answers is the art of defining life yes this is an art we need to start be honest with ourselves and all the answers to simple questions as why am I fat because I eat too much why my partner is cheating on me because I did not know to be that perfect partner that I had to be and the list of questions will go on we need to start defining what we don't like once we understand that the change is in our powers and if we really want a change we will start the process of achieving the new life we dream at we don't need to go to a therapist we don't need to study motivational issues of social media and don't even need to read hundreds or thousands of books to start the change process the art of defining our lives means that we have the courage to understand what we don't like and define very clear how our reality should look like the depression or what we call depression because many things are unclear in our minds is this huge gap between where we are now and where we want to be we are looking for a magic bridge that should help us go very easily from one point to the other the process itself is a very simple one as long as we decide to be honest to us the art of defining yes is an art and also to live is an art once we decide that we are brave enough to live our lives the dream life the magic will happen cause all the magic is our powers there are lots of books published every year with all kinds of theories but not so many expressing the concept of abstract love I would define this a reflection of our thoughts into the real life we call it abstract cause have nothing to do with the normal dogmatic way of seeing the love stories real love that perfect scenario with the perfect partner can be seen at any age depending of the luck our karma allows us to have but we want it so much that the universe allows us this meeting with only one obstacle which in many cases makes the love story impossible thinking in a positive way we redefine the impossible story as an abstract one being a reflection of our dreams the story itself is a perfect one except the fact that you cannot enjoy the story into the real word creating the image of an illusion impossible love stories are present all over the world after posting a long time in social media

i received messages from people from all the continents telling me about them the word love being present near the word imposible creates this strange illusory and abstract way of seeing the magic of love the book is a collection of essays my thoughts about the interconnection between the illusion and reality i used a lot the term illusion cause we all look for perfect scenarios especially when it comes to love but the truth is that perfection is far far away of reality we can interconnect illusions with the real world just through imposible love stories in the end the book is a personal development writing that allows us to understand the magic of love but also a method that teaches how to enjoy life even if we dislike the word imposible this book offers the hint for a new reflection on ancient textual transmission and editorial practices in antiquity in the first section it retraces the first steps of the process of ancient writing and editing the reader will discover how the book is both a material object and a metaphorical personification material or immaterial the second section will focus on corpora of greek texts their formation and their paratextual apparatus readers will explore various issues dealing with the mechanisms that are at the basis of the assembling of ancient greek texts but great attention will also be given to the role of ancient scholarly work the third section shows how texts have two levels of authorship the author of the text and the scribe who copies the text the scribe is not a medium but plays a crucial role in changing the text this section will focus on the protagonists of some interesting cases of textual transmission but also on the books they manufactured or kept in the libraries and on the words they engraved on stones therefore the fresh voices of the contributors of this book offer new perspectives on established research fields dealing with textual criticism
