identifying the scenes of written texts is a critical skill for following the course set by an author even a small variation in course heading can result in compounding an error over time with regard to one s intended destination perhaps nowhere is this more important than in the opening unit of mark s gospel in this book brad johnson sets out to follow the course prescribed by the author of the second gospel making use of the principles of inductive bible study rhetorical criticism and a study of ancient prologues johnson makes a twofold case that mark s opening unit the first fifteen verses demonstrates a formal integrity and performs a rhetorical function as such the markan prologue situates the public life and ministry of jesus within the broader context of an epic drama a failure to acknowledge the unique contribution of mark as author in this regard will likely result in a destination the author never intended this collection of essays is drawn from a series of previous collections to which the author has contributed that were designed to honor senior scholars in the discipline of old testament study each of these essays reflects a distinct intention depending on the nature of the original collection in which they appeared and the scholar who was being honored taken together however this collection amounts to an articulation of brueggemann s distinctive approach to theological interpretation of the old testament already in his major volume on old testament theology brueggemann proposed a dynamism of tension dispute and contradiction as the text of ancient israel sought to give voice to the mystery of god as a sustaining and disruptive agent in the life of the world over a long period of time this collection reflects the author s growing clarity about the task of old testament theology it further reflects on the nature of the biblical text and the way in which the god who inhabits the text runs beyond all of our attempts to define and explain these essays reflect not so much on methodological issues but take up the substantive questions that regularly occupied these ancient text makers seminar paper from the year 2022 in the subject theology biblical theology grade a language english abstract according to john w drane in his journal gnosticism and the new testament 2 john writes asserting that over the last seventy years or so three considerations have been taken up in dealing with the question of gnosticism and the new testament referred to as the classical theory pre christian gnosticism and a simultaneous development the classical theory terming gnosticism as a christian heresy the church fathers engaged in the fight to keep the catholic church of the early centuries free from heresy assuming that the catholic faith was the original form of christianity and any departure must have come in later which could have been based on a perversion of orthodox christian belief from aforesaid it was self evident that gnosticism was based on catholic christianity and constituted a deviation from the true faith from the time of the fathers until the rise of scientific biblical criticism towards the close of the nineteenth century interpreters had more or less claimed that gnosticism was a perversion of the true christian gospel beginning sometime in the second century ad and that a fairly clear line of development could be tracked from those elements of docetic teaching opposed in such new testament writings as 1 john to the developed gnostic heresies the arrival of a scientific approach to biblical history dealt what must be considered as a death blow to this theory of gnostic origins though it was not without a counter attack that this was accomplished
