most salespeople work hard to become proficient in reaching the frontline managers in their markets however a salesperson who wishes to achieve long lasting success with a client will learn how to also appeal to top level executives from an above the line perspective master sales trainer skip miller shows how to simultaneously sell to both the frontline manager as well as the executive who is more concerned with profit loss indicators such as roi time saved risk lowered and productivity improved a strategy used by google apple cisco webex and other powerhouses in selling above and below the line you will learn how to create energy by including executives early in the sales process ask the right questions and pinpoint big picture financial needs keep below the line managers from feeling bypassed uncover value propositions that target each set of decision makers sales that seem locked in will stall or go dark customers who have been loyal to you suddenly back out of the relationship due to decisions made above the manager s head this often could have been avoided had the salesperson been intentional to sell both the technical and financial fit in selling above and below the line learn to effectively communicate both leading to more successful and lucrative deals than ever before our american government began with a revolutionary idea alexis de tocqueville called the evolutionary process of revolution wherein society evolves and institutes sweeping changes in government the government of the united states was the most unique creation of human history since it was an actual collaboration between nature and the individual for nature and the individual with the express purpose of facilitating and improving that relationship it took all of humanity s history its successes and failures along with nature s tools of inspiration and evolution for the conception to manifest itself until a government of the individuals by the individuals for the individual had come into being the individual citizens of the united colonies were living in a state of grace with nature and the society they made up created a clear mirror image of themselves including internal equilibriums intended to preserve their self actualization process a few years later another revolution took place one de toqueville would call the political kind this revolution occurred in france it would be the precursor for many other modern revolutions wherein one centralized collective authority replaces another and where government attempts to impose its will on society today in america this spiritual battle continues on one side is the tea party patriots carrying on the spiritual tradition of our founders and framers on the other side those who look toward the archaic eurocentric and asiatic concepts of an all powerful centralized collective authority finally buttressed with natures bounty fortified with natures gifts testifying to natures truth we must be ready to take a leap in faith the hardest leap of faith to believe in is a leap of faith in each other in the individual in the end the only way a government of the individuals by the individuals for the individual can long endure on the face of the earth faith in god alone cannot suffice for such a government to work it is the most necessary prerequisite for such a government to exist but it cannot retain it cannot nurture it because the government is a covenant a pact made between god and the individual if we lose faith in the individual we break the sacred pact being granted so many gifts the last act is in our own hands we are the city on the hill when we believe we are the city on the hill when we act the part we are the light of the world and the inspiration to the world it is really simple if enough individuals carry out this leap of faith a new critical mass will be reached and a miracle will turn the tide in our affairs once more and we like the patriots of old will once again fulfill our own self actualization process and bequeath to our posterity the ability and responsibility to reach their own the crisis in adventist eschatology is due to its reliance on millerism's faulty methodology and falsified prophetic predictions ellen white taught that father miller's sole authority was scripture and a concordance that his interpretations were literal commonsense and most importantly that god had originated his date setting conclusions by repeated angelic guidance she announced that miller was typological of john the baptist that miller was a forerunner to christ's second advent as the baptist was to his first this book will document that these three misconceptions are falsified by primary sources from roughly 1835 to 1851 miller was highly dependent on disconfirmed centuries old historicist speculations his interpretations were allegorical and arbitrary not literal his falsified proofs obviously not of angelic origin for example miller initially predicted the parousia and fall of the ottoman empire for 1839 white also endorsed snow joseph turner and crozier whom she said god had given true light post disappointment these men continued using miller's allegorical typological historicist methods and ellen harmon was taught by these men about two centuries after the midnight cry and the end times signs of 1755 1780 and 1833 the sda church's tenacious reliance on millerite proofs makes its eschatology increasingly implausible inspired by charles mackay's 19th century classic memoirs of extraordinary popular delusions and the madness of crowds william bernstein engages with mass delusion with the same curiosity and passion but armed with the latest scientific research that explains the biological evolutionary and psychosocial roots of human irrationality bernstein tells the stories of dramatic religious and financial mania in western society over the last 500 years from the anabaptist madness that afflicted the low countries in the 1530s to the dangerous end times beliefs that animate isis and pervade today's polarised nations and from the south sea bubble to the enron scandal and dot com bubbles of recent years through bernstein's supple prose the participants are as colourful as their motivation invariably the desire to improve one's well being in this life or the next as revealing about human nature as they are historically significant bernstein's chronicles reveal the huge cost and alarming implications of mass mania as he observes that if we can absorb the history and biology of mass delusion we can recognise it more readily in our own time and avoid its frequently dire impact
