periods of its association with the chaldean church the portuguese the dutch english and so on this volume highlights the missionary activities of persons like st francis xavier the creative contributions made to the inter religious dialogue by such people as roberto de nobili 1577 1656 and swami abhishiktananda 1910 1973 the linguistic and educational contributions of some of the pioneers like the german jesuit johanne ernst hanxleden known as arnos padiri 1681 1732 herman gundert 1814 1893 st elias kuriakos chavara 1805 1871 and a fortiori the enormous contributions in the healthcare area throughout the country caring for and serving the socio economically marginalized ones the peripheralized people formed an integral part of the christian activity in india as it is done even today this is highlighted very much in the volume it further explores the contact india had with european christianity showing that european christianity proved to have wider influence in the northern part of india unlike india s early episodic encounters with palestinian and persian forms of christianity which had deep influence in the southern part of india the volume also highlights the inner struggle among the followers resulting even in its division originating at the synod of diampur in 1599 manifesting by and large the church state love and hate relationships in fine in spite of the drawbacks of putting the herculean task of two thousand years of history in eight hundred pages or so this volume gives a rather comprehensive view of christianity in india especially to those who are unfamiliar with its life and dynamics in the indian context the wide range of photographs 325 of them especially of the churches revealing the architectural beauty and multiplicity along with the ensample of art and paintings and pilgrimage centers adds to the enrichment of the volume

a guide to new testament textual criticism that introduces students to the methods currently used by the most respected specialists in the field while there are many introductions to twentieth century new testament textual criticism scholars and students need a twenty first century introduction to the praxis of new testament textual criticism that refines and replaces some elements of the traditional approach in keeping with recent advancements in the discipline methodologies known to be deficient are still being taught and even new testament commentators apply outdated and problematic methods in their evaluation of textual variants this new introduction guides readers in the practice of a more refined reasoned eclecticism to identify the original reading of the new testament text readers will learn to identify variant readings and the witnesses in support of them from the apparatuses in the major editions of the greek new testament new testament textual criticism for the 21st century includes several examples and exercises that guide students in applying critical thinking skills to specific variant units the goal throughout is to move from abstract discussion to concrete examples to offer students the picture worth a thousand words most importantly the book demonstrates how new tools and findings generally discussed only in scholarly literature are changing the text of the most respected editions of the greek new testament and can aid researchers in their study of manuscripts the later roman empire was shrinking on the map but still shaped the way historians represented the space around them in this volume we try to understand the mamluk empire not as a confined space but as a region where several nodes of different networks existed side by side and at the same time in our opinion these networks constitute to a great extent the core of the so called mamluk society they form the basis of the social order following in part concepts refined in the new area studies recent reflections about the phenomenon of the empire state trajectories in today's global history and the spatial turn in modern historiography we intend to identify a number of physical and cognitive networks with one or more nodes in mamluk controlled territories in addition to this one of the most important analytical questions would be to define the role of these networks in mamluk society
