subtle and wide ranging in its account this study explores the impact of australian art in britain in the two decades following the end of world war ii and preceding the swinging sixties in a transitional period of decolonization in britain australian painting was briefly seized upon as a dynamic and reinvigorating force in contemporary art and a group of australian artists settled in london where they held centre stage with group and solo exhibitions in the capital's most prestigious galleries the book traces the key influences of sir kenneth clark bernard smith and bryan robertson in their various and varying roles as patrons ideologues and entrepreneurs for australian art as well as the self definition and interaction of the artists themselves simon pierse interweaves multiple issues of the period into a cohesive historical narrative including the mechanics of the british art world the limited and frustrating cultural scene of 1950s australia and the conservative influence of australian government bodies publishing for the first time archival material letters and photographs previously unavailable to scholars either in britain or australia this book demonstrates how the work of expatriate australian artists living in london constructed a distinct vision of australian identity for a foreign market this book brings together from four years of study on nigerian contemporary art's internationalization the monograph integrates voices of african nigerian artists and art market players into the growing discourse on the emerging art markets in the global south it explores the logic of competition and dynamics of power relations in the global markets focusing on the internationalization of contemporary art forms from peripheral regions the book confirms that the internationalization of contemporary art form from nigeria is limited due to systematic marginalization in the artistic field which in this case based on postcolonialism and debilitating socio economic factors such as outmoded art education unstructured support system and weak mechanism for local validation and an inefficient political framework for art governance it will therefore be useful to students and researchers in the sociology of art art market studies art history and culture polity an exploration of the lives and works of the members of the beaver hall group founded in 1920 the group was in the vanguard of bringing modernism to Canada and is notable for its inclusion of women who now rank among the country's most outstanding painters today contemporary art is a global phenomenon biennales museums art fairs galleries auction houses academies and audiences for contemporary visual art are all institutions whose presence on a global scale has widened tremendously during the past two decades thus by including contemporary art from non western regions these traditional western art institutions have not only broadened their scope to a greater extent but have also been challenged themselves by the new cultural economic and media world order of globalization how contemporary art is made international is the subject of this book tracing as it does developments during the past two decades while focusing particularly on the mechanisms of globality which are at work in the art world today the book critically investigates fundamental questions like what is new internationalism in contemporary art and how it affected the art world how does new internationalism relate to concepts like ethnicity aesthetics standard art history and new media and how is new internationalism rather paradoxically furthered to a greater extent by global capitalism than it is by seemingly progressive art projects
