Welsh is the oldest surviving Celtic language and the most flourishing for around fifteen centuries. Welsh poets have expressed an intense awareness of what it is like to be human in this part of the world in poems of extraordinary range and depth and despite the global tendency towards homogenisation Welsh poets have fought back drawing inspiration from both the traditional and the contemporary to forge a new and rainbow-like modernism. This wide-ranging anthology of 20th-century Welsh language poetry in English translation by far the most comprehensive of its kind will be a revelation for most readers. It will dispel the romantic images of Welsh poets as bards or druids and blow away any preconceived mists of Celtic twilight. This poetry is full of vitality combining old craftsmanship and daring innovation, humour and angst. The oral and the literary, the selection brings together poets of every hue from magisterial figures like T. Gwynn Jones, R. Williams, Parry and Saunders Lewis to folk poets such as Alun Cilie and Dic Jones from cerebral poets Pennar Davies and Bobi Jones to popular entertainers Geraint Løvgreen and Ifor ap Glyn. There are Chaplinesque poets, rebellious and subversive ones, lyrical voices and storytellers. The variety is enormous from Welsh performance poetry to song lyrics from the wry social comment of Grahame Davies to the contemporary parables of Gwyneth Lewis who writes different kinds of poems in Welsh and English. This exuberant chorus of voices from the margins of Europe proves that poetry in this minority language is far from stagnant. Poetry Book Society recommended translation.

Above all else guard your heart for it is the wellspring of life. Proverbs 4:23. They smell like sheep. Volume 2. Leading with the heart of a shepherd is about more than gimmicks and techniques of leadership. It speaks to the character and heart of the leader. After all, heart makes the difference in an effective Sunday school teacher, youth minister, elder, small group leader, parent, grandparent or Christian school teacher. Spiritual sheep stray. Sheep and searching sheep aren't nearly as concerned about the knowledge and skill of the shepherd as they are about his heart when finding their way at weddings, at funerals, during family crises and in the hospital. Sheep go to a shepherd in whom they discern God's own heart. Like King David of old, Jesus said sheep would know their shepherd's voice and be drawn to it. It is the heart behind the voice that soothes and comforts God's people. How do you measure the influence of a godly shepherd? Without doubt, it's the heart of the shepherd that most powerfully shapes lives and souls in our flocks. If you want your own heart shaped and molded into the likeness of Christ, this book is an excellent place to begin. Be shepherds of God's flock under your care as God wants you to be heeding the call to be a leader is an awesome responsibility whether you have been called to serve as a minister or you're teaching an adult bible study group or you're a teen leading the youth group in song most assuredly from time to time you question your abilities and look for support and example author lynn anderson addresses the starting and ending place of true leadership among god's people the heart of a shepherd he presents jesus the head shepherd as our only reliable model of godly leadership he guides us through the scriptures and gives us practical exercises to strengthen our hearts as we do the difficult yet rewarding work of shepherding people of god with love and grace enter the book's pages with the confidence that you are being led by someone who has the heart of a shepherd and who sees himself first as a smelly sheep dearly loved and led by the good shepherd and when the chief shepherd appears you will receive the crown of glory 1 peter 5:4
