here is an outstanding photographic record of the heroic taking of the beach at omaha omaha was the more difficult of the two beaches for the us forces and the fighting was ferocious the tactics terrain uniforms and equipment of the american soldiers and their german opponents are covered here in great detail

the story of d day in this unforgettable narrative of d day joseph balkoski describes the minute by minute combat as it unfolded on omaha beach allowing soldiers to speak for themselves as they recall their attempts to maneuver bombers through heavy cloud cover the claustrophobic terror aboard transports and the relentless fire that greeted them on the beach equal parts oral history and meticulous reconstruction omaha beach is the closest the modern reader can get to experiencing the normandy landings firsthand early in 1944 german commander field marshal erwin rommel took a look at the sloping sands and announced they will come here he was referring to omaha beach the beach was then transformed into three miles of lethal bunker protected arcs of fire with seaside chalets converted into concrete strongpoints with layers of barbed wire and mines when company a of the us 116th regiment landed on omaha beach in d day s first wave on 6th june 1944 it lost 96 of its effective strength this was the beginning of the historic day that landing on the edge of eternity narrates hour by hour midnight to midnight tracking german and american soldiers fighting across the beachhead the wehrmacht thought they had bludgeoned the americans into submission yet by mid afternoon the american troops were ashore why were the casualties so grim and how could the germans have failed juxtaposing the american experience pinned down swamped by a rising tide facing young wehrmacht soldiers fighting desperately for their lives kershaw draws on eyewitness accounts memories letters and post combat reports to expose the true horrors of omaha beach landing on the edge of eternity is a dramatic historical ride through an amphibious landing that looked as though it might never succeed the past present series reconstructs historical battles by using photography juxtaposing modern views with those of the past it shows how much infrastructure has remained and points to the passing nature of things such as outfits uniforms and ephemera of the five beaches attacked on 6 june omaha saw the sternest fighting well placed defenders on the high ground and extensive beach defenses did their job on top of this so much had gone wrong with the first wave many of the amphibious dd sherman tanks didn t reach the beach they were released from their landing craft too far away where the greater swell swamped them and the troops landing on omaha missed their firepower another problem was that many units landed in the wrong place strong tides and winds carried the landing craft off line and led to confusion finally the german emplacements and defenses were well placed on high ground and the only cover on the beach the seawall was over a killing ground there were 32 fortified areas located between the vire river and port en bessin in all 12 of these strongpoints were able to direct fire on omaha beach the attacking forces units of the us 29th and 1st inf divs suffered over 2 000 casualties many of them drowned during the approach but led by us rangers themselves misplaced they were the follow up troops to rudder s rangers who had scaled the pointe du hoc the american troops pushed forward and by nightfall they had gained hold of the beach and its immediate hinterland despite the casualties 34 000 troops had been landed by the end of the day an introductory illustrated history and guide to the infamous omaha beach d day landing 6 june 1944

u s army troops weren t the only ones storming omaha beach on d day many navy sailors were called upon to be foot soldiers as well in this decisive and pivotal battle a navy soldier on omaha beach is the personal account in words pictures and illustrations of the d day and world war ii experiences of gilbert h dube usn 7th naval beach battalion nbb company b 6 as told to and written by his son it includes a detailed history of the formation training and use of nbbs in normandy as well as the combat experiences of several nbb members on june 6 1944 on omaha beach and in the normandy campaign that followed the book also describes the veteran s poignant return to omaha beach for the first and only time some 55 years later omaha was the make or break allied beach on d day in perhaps the make or break campaign of world war ii if american soldiers couldn t gain a foothold there then d day was unlikely to succeed on june 6 1944 u s troops on omaha suffered the worst casualties of any of the five allied invasion beaches so many casualties and so much tactical difficulty that omaha almost didn t succeed one big reason why americans gained a foothold on omaha was gen norman dutch cota a graduate of the west point class of 1917 alongside famous classmates matthew ridgway mark clark and lightning joe collins norm cota played football with dwight eisenhower who graduated two years earlier from march 1941 to february 1943 cota served with the famous 1st infantry division the big red one as division intelligence officer plans training officer and finally chief of staff he performed so well in the north africa campaign that he was sent to england to help plan d day after laying the tactical groundwork for the amphibious landings cota was made assistant division commander of the 29th infantry division on the eve of d day he told his men you re going to find confusion the landing craft aren t going in on schedule and people are going to be landed in the wrong place some won t be landed at all we must improvise carry on not lose our heads on june 6 1944 under heavy fire cota landed with the second wave of the 29th infantry division on omaha beach about an hour after the start of the invasion he personally rallied the survivors of the landings and led the opening of one of the first exits off omaha cota seemed to be everywhere that day coming upon a group of rangers the general told them rangers lead the way hence the rangers motto he is also known for saying gentlemen we are being killed on the beaches let us go inland and be killed and to a captain uncertain how to proceed i ll tell you what captain you and your men start shooting at them i ll take a squad of men and you and your men watch carefully i ll show you how to take a house with germans in it having demonstrated the task cota asked the officer do you understand do you know how to do it now i won't be around to do it for you again i can't do it for everybody great quips which american military history will always remember and which show the character in every sense of dutch cota cota was a fighter a fighting general a d day general and his contribution to d day will remain his rallying of demoralized troops and his blazing the trail toward the breakout and victory on omaha ted roosevelt jr who landed at utah beach has always received credit as the d day general like cota roosevelt also demanded that he land on d day and then died of a heart attack a month later but cota is the hero general of the day having landed early on d day on bloody omaha portrayed by robert mitchum in the grand d day film the longest day cota has not yet received his due and there's a campaign now afoot to award him a belated medal of honor his story cries out to be told now with the cooperation of the cota family noel f mehlo jr tells the compelling story dutch cota on omaha beach revealing new information and never before seen photos in april may and june 1944 there were three major areas of naval conflict in new guinea united states us and australian forces landed at aitape and hollandia then at arare wakde and biak island in europe the battle for the control of the english channel heated up the german navy attacked what they thought was an allied convoy along the english southwestern coast they had actually stumbled upon operation tiger the allied training exercise for the upcoming normandy landing raf bomber command mined biscay bretagne la pallice lorient brest cherbourg le havre den helder texel the friesland islands the german bay kattegat kiel swinemünde gotenhafen and pillau the allies initiated operation neptune to conceal the real allied landing location from the germans all this culminated in the allied landing in normandy france in operation overlord in the pacific the us landed on saipan considered japanese territory in operation forager which caused the battle of the philippine sea along this narrow stretch of sand called omaha beach all the painstaking plans for the normandy invasion fell apart one of the men who was lucky enough to make it past the beachhead recalls a day of fear loss grief and triumph updated with more than 120 photographs a visual edition of ambrose's definitive account of d day traces the epic stories of the soldiers and junior officers who fought and defeated hitler's armies reanalyzing military records and battle plans of the normandy invasion lewis traces the evolution of combined operations more than one nation and joint operations more than one service as well as tactical doctrines from the inter war period to 1944 to explain how the plan for swift victory at omaha beach went terribly wrong and turned into the bloodiest of the allied invasions
