humairah and kamaludeen examine contemporary malay national identity in singapore and malaysia through the lens of primordial modernity taking on a comparative transnational perspective how do malays in singapore and malaysia conceptualise and negotiate their ethnic identity vis à vis the state s construction of malay national identity humairah and kamaludeen employ discourse analyses of both elite and mass texts that include newspaper editorials school textbooks political speeches novels movies and letters in local newspapers extending current notions of malay identity the authors offer a comprehensive overview of malay identity that takes into consideration both primordial dimensions and the more modern aspects such as their cosmopolitan sensibilities and their approach to social mobility a valuable resource for scholars of southeast asian culture and society as well as sociologists looking at wider issues of ethnic and national identity the largely arabo centric approach to the academic study of tafsir has resulted in a lack of literature exploring the diversity of qur anic interpretation in other areas of the muslim majority world the essays in the qur an in the malay indonesian world resolve this aiming to expand our knowledge of tafsir and its history in the malay indonesian world highlighting the scope of qur anic interpretation in the malay world in its various vernaculars it also contextualizes this work to reveal its place as part of the wider islamic world especially through its connections to the arab world and demonstrates the strength of these connections the volume is divided into three parts written primarily by scholars from malaysia and indonesia beginning with a historical overview it then moves into chapters with a more specifically regional focus to conclude with a thematic approach by looking at topics of some controversy in the broader world presenting new examinations of an under researched topic this book will be of interest to students and scholars of islamic studies and southeast asian studies
