originally published in 1927 this is the final of four volumes to discuss christian theology under the guidance of the historic decisions of the christian church and the prevailing tendencies of catholic thought in the early 20th century this volume is concerned with subjects that can generally be summed up under the title eschatology that part of theology concerned with death judgements and the final destiny of the soul in the 17th century the microscope opened up a new world of observation and according to author catherine wilson profoundly revised the thinking of scientists and philosophers alike focusing on the earliest forays into microscopical research from 1620 to 1720 this book provides us with both a compelling technological history and a lively assessment of the new knowledge

this book originates from a research project involving extensive collection and analysis of primary and secondary materials scholarly literature statistical data and interviews with key actors on global management and local resistances in all major world regions during the last years it seeks to assess the overall management situation in the world looking at the world as a social system where some countries act as winners of socioeconomic globalization others as losers and some as both offering analytical and comparative insights at the global level this book will be useful for scholars students ngos and policy makers the multiverse as theory in postmodern speculative fictional narratives considers the concept of the multiverse beyond the immediacy of being merely an excuse or scenario for the development of stories instead positioning the multiverse as a theoretical method in which speculative fiction narratives can explore diverse issues to bridge ideas across cultural social and philosophical analysis taking a cross cultural approach the book centres around the critical engagements that literary and media texts have with the representations of the multiverse beyond considering this subject as a mere rhetorical flourish or a passing fad a diverse and international team of authors engage with the multiverse from the point of view of other worlds understanding it not as the appearance of another independent world but as the collision of two or more different worlds into one of them from this key finding the multiverse encourages us to pay attention to the influence that fiction exerts on narratives and world building providing possible frameworks to rethink critical aspects of temporality space self society and culture in contemporary times this pioneering work will interest students and scholars working in the areas of media and cultural studies comparative literature popular culture studies speculative fiction and transmedia studies
