our chief purpose in writing this new life of st patrick when so many lives already exist is to give a fuller and we venture to hope more exact account of the saint s missionary labours in ireland than any that has appeared since the tripartite life was first written for this purpose we have not only thoroughly studied colgan s great work and made ourselves familiar with the really valuable publications of our own times but we have when practicable personally visited all the scenes of the saint s labours both at home and abroad so as to be able to give a local colouring to the dry record and also to catch up as far as possible the echoes daily growing fainter of the once vivid traditions of the past aeterna press
