hymns and the music the church sings in worship are tangible means of expressing worship and while worship is one of if not the central functions of the church along with mission service education justice and compassion and occupies a prime focus of our churches a renewed sense of awareness to our theological presuppositions and cultural cues must be maintained to ensure a proper focus in worship hymns and hymnody historical and theological introductions is a sixty chapter three volume introductory textbook describing the most influential hymnists liturgists and musical movements of the church this academically grounded resource evaluates both the historical and theological perspectives of the major hymnists and composers who have impacted the church over the course of twenty centuries volume 1 explores the early church and concludes with the renaissance era hymnists volume 2 begins with the reformation and extends to the eighteenth century hymnists and liturgists volume 3 engages nineteenth century hymnists to the contemporary movements of the twenty first century each chapter contains these five elements historical background theological perspectives communicated in their hymns compositions contribution to liturgy and worship notable hymns and bibliography the mission of hymns and hymnody is 1 to provide biographical data on influential hymn writers for students and interested laypeople and 2 to provide a theological analysis of what these composers have communicated in the theology of their hymns we believe it is vital for those involved in leading the worship of the church to recognize that what they communicate is in fact theology this latter aspect we contend is missing yet important in accessible formats for the current literature in the anglican churches of north america and sometimes elsewhere there are two complaints about deacons in the liturgy bishops and priests complain that deacons don't know how to do liturgy deacons complain that bishops and priests won't let them do liturgy the solution lies in liturgical formation both theological and practical this book is designed to help provide that formation for bishops priests deacons and indeed for all the people of god the introduction provides a brief history of the use of deacons in anglican liturgies from 1549 to the present including characteristics and statement of purposes the lives that shaped the songs that shape our faith their stories and lives are seldom considered or known yet their works and influence are felt almost every day somewhere in the world and have been for centuries they are the hymnists and their gift to the world for centuries and for the future are found in the beautiful words of their hymns hymnists are the poets of the spirit the leaders of light who pull us from the dark and who help show the way back to clarity and purpose in our lives based on faith and redemption their hymns have survived wars famines plagues the dark ages revolutions the rise and decline of church attendance contemporary debasement of religion and anything related to worship and many other follies and frailties of mankind the hymns survived because of dedicated hymnists and the meaningfulness of their words to a world that always faces turmoil and challenges to faith and family this book explores the lives of many of our favorite hymnists the reader will find almost 400 biographies of hymnists including their compelling stories the reader will rejoice in the hymnists' inspirational stories find redemption in their despair and heartbreak and experience reassurance in their faith the words of the hymnists help us cope with fear search for hope and find inspiration when a reader explores hymns more closely and overlays the themes of the hymns with the lives of the hymnists a pattern emerges there are numerous references to fear hope and inspiration just like in the bible these themes are so pervasive that they need to be studied and in studying them consideration should be given to how they interconnect consequently this book explores the impact that fear hope and inspiration have on our lives and how they are linked
