from the earliest airfields to the post 9 11 turn this book investigates how airports figure in the american cultural imagination

a brilliant new book from one of canada s most popular columnists a no holds barred riposte to the mess we ve made of things mrs tittlemouse is heaven in a sponge mop i read beatrix potter s books as a child and love her paintings her stories her home boiling of squirrels so her watercolours could be anatomically exact but most of all beatrix potter made domesticity desirable all right she didn't but she domesticated me personal order has become my badge and it's the only thing that really works with melancholy heather mallick is sorely disappointed the world has not turned out quite the way she had hoped it would but rather than retreat from it she takes the world head on fearlessly and formidably on her own terms in a new work of entirely original writing we have heather unplugged some might even say unhinged and uncensored from the restrictions of her globe and mail column writing as her many fans have come to expect from her she is incisive and outrageous whether she's cataloguing the many situations and items in our daily lives that we are told we should fear teaching us how to cope with people we just can't stand ruthless mockery is the key really says heather or writing about the valuable life lesson to be learned from one of her childhood heroes mrs tittlemouse the original domestic goddess a candid reflection on the complicated state of our lives and our world today viewed through the lens of heather's inimitable wit and outlook on life cake or death the excruciating choices of everyday life will provoke and delight readers indianapolis monthly is the circle city's essential chronicle and guide an indispensable authority on what's new and what's news through coverage of politics crime dining style business sports and arts and entertainment each issue offers compelling narrative stories and lively urbane coverage of indy's cultural landscape a warm sexy laugh out loud rom com about a woman who desperate for a fresh start books a literary bus tour across the uk that consists of a lively group of elderly ladies plus one infuriatingly handsome scottish driver uk bus trip goals crawl out of pajamas get over cheating bastard and his stupid ironed jeans have my first real adventure achieve stability strength and growth definitely do not kiss any british men alice loves a good list but careful planning didn't stop her from losing her job and her fiance in one fell swoop with her dreaded 30th birthday looming on the horizon alice makes the first impulsive decision of her life booking a flight to the uk for a three week all female literary bus tour what could possibly go wrong turns out everything alice arrives to discover that this tour isn't what she expected at all instead of cool globe trotting thirtysomethings with meaningful tattoos she finds a rickety antique bus full of fluffy haired octogenarians and to make matters infinitely worse the tour guide makes her blood boil and that devilish grin of his tells her he's dead set on making her trip a misery but as they travel from castle ruins to cozy pubs Alice may just find that she's got it all wrong the ladies are vivacious the book club chat is on fire and damn if that mischievous smile doesn't threaten to turn her world upside down and her beloved list right along with it
