with her frayed jeans and cascade of tousled dark hair lynn shaw looks more like one of the teenage residents of horizon house than their counselor so it s no wonder state senator erik gunther mistakes her for one not that he exactly fits the description of a politician with his movie star looks and athletic build even lynn cynical stubborn and decidedly not looking for a relationship can t ignore her body s response to the man allegedly he s come to defend lynn from angry locals who don t want her home for delinquent girls in their neighborhood but as far as lynn is concerned he s looking for a photo op a chance to play the hero the last thing either she or her troubled girls need what they need is understanding lynn knows teenage rebellion all too well and she knows firsthand its heartbreaking price she won t touch the good senator with a ten foot pole only to watch him disappear once he gets what he wants unfortunately erik refuses to go away the moment erik looks into her emerald eyes his interest in work falls into serious competition with his interest in lynn shaw her rejection of his assistance only intrigues him further he is determined to know her and to help her if that means practically moving into horizon house so be it but as the two engage in a battle of hearts it becomes clear that lynn is waging a private war of her own against demons of the past and against her overwhelming desire for the one man who may be worth fighting for
