crewdson est un photographe étrange et inquiétant il nous montre des vues de la banale banlieue américaine habitée par des classes moyennes sans histoire mais les scènes qu'il nous présente les mises en scène qu'il réalise plutôt ont toutes un petit quelque chose de dérangeant grand observateur de la société contemporaine il est par excellence le photographe de l'envers du rêve américain alone street brings together two major bodies of work by gregory crewdson cathedral of the pines aperture 2016 and an eclipse of moths aperture 2020 in a single elegant and affordable monograph both series expand on the artist's obsessive exploration of the psychogeography of small town post industrial new england and underscore the precision and depth of crewdson's unique mode of photographic storytelling in each image light color and carefully crafted scenography evoke the feeling that as art historian alexander nemerov has astutely described all that ever happened in these places seems crystallized in his tableaux as if the quiet melancholy of crewdson's scenes gathered the unruly sorrows and other little guessed feelings of people long gone who once stood on those spots in addition to the full set of images from each series alone street presents a selection of behind the scenes images and storyboards revealing the extensive preparation and planning that went into the making of each work although these series illustrate distinct subject matter they share crewdson s unique preoccupations and compelling aesthetic fireflies is the result of two solitary summer months spent photographing the fireflies that came alive at dusk each evening beneath the roses depicts the homes streets and forests of unnamed small towns revealing emotionally charged moments in the lives of seemingly ordinary individuals in sanctuary haunting images of the legendary italian film studio cinecitta capture the beauty of the decaying film sets texts from curators of the exhibition and crewdson himself offer fresh insight and examine the parallels between these seemingly disparate subjects celebrating some of the artist s greatest work this volume is a must have for any crewdson fan and the perfect introduction to those discovering him for the first time praise for gregory crewdson in a lonely place whether one is exploring crewdson s work for the first time or revisiting his images text from both the artist himself and the curators involved gives the reader a personal interaction with crewdson that illustrates his passion for capturing the lives of others huffington post filled with meticulously constructed photographs that blur the boundaries between reality and imagination this sumptuously produced retrospective features more than thirty years of work by one of america s most influential photographers for more than three decades gregory crewdson has been luring viewers into the worlds of his cinematic highly detailed and assiduously crafted photographs this retrospective catalog features images from nine series that represent a broad chronological spectrum of crewdson s oeuvre included are selections from twilight the eerie and often darkly humorous photographs inspired by stephen spielberg s close encounters of the third kind beneath the roses which illuminates townscapes forest clearings and broad desolate streets with unsettling clarity the black and white images of sanctuary shot on location at the legendary cinecitta studios on the outskirts of rome cathedral of the pines a paean to the beauty and tragedy of a gritty western massachusetts town and eveningside in which moments of alienation and wonder occur within the confines of quotidian life with highest quality reproductions paper changes and incisive essays by photography expert walter moser and other esteemed art historians this exhibition catalog reveals why crewdson s powerful elegiac and painterly photos draw comparisons to old master painting staged photography and auteur cinema this volume chronicles gregory crewdson s twilight series elaborate tableaux that capture bizarre surrealities behind deceptively familiar suburban facades the images are accompanied by an essay from rick moody a novelist renowned for exposing the underbelly of small town middle class america this study breaks with traditional readings in terms of tragic model and tragic hero in the works of racine and corneille it departs from the critical tradition of examining the tragic hero as an isolated figure defined by autonomy it approaches the behaviour of médée clytemnestre and phèdre from a relational perspective it argues that these female characters belong to the tragic hero category hold valid and valuable ethical positions and deserve to be treated as equal to their male counterparts it also redefines the way we look at the tragic dynamic the characters are no longer antagonists but inadvertent collaborators working towards the tragic outcome in order to satisfy desires and beliefs about themselves and the world that are deeply rooted in their psyche this book shows that alternative interpretations of the behaviour of médée clytemnestre and phèdre can be obtained and must be obtained by applying modern methodologies in order to challenge the biased readings from the past and to see these characters in a new light crewdson s epic photographic trilogy a portrait of america a decade in the making over the past three decades gregory crewdson has been fleshing out a portrait of middle america an america gazing wide eyed at the glimmers of a fading dream his cinematographically staged photos have pieced together the fragments of a twilight world tinged with numbness this book brings together three bodies of work made between 2012 and 2022 cathedral of the pines 2012 14 an eclipse of moths 2018 19 and eveningside 2021 22 envisaged as a trilogy they provide unique insight into a decade of creation and offer a comprehensive view of the universe that has positioned crewdson as one of the major figures of contemporary photography this trilogy is introduced by fireflies 1996 a pivotal series for grasping the intimate undercurrents in crewdson s work gregory crewdson born 1962 is a graduate of suny purchase and the yale school of art where he is now the director of graduate studies in photography his series beneath the roses is the subject of the 2012 documentary gregory crewdson brief encounters his work has been exhibited widely in the us and europe crewdson is represented by gagosian gallery new york
