Serving with Honor is a book about ministry, but more importantly, it's a book about a form of integrity sorely lacking in today's self-centered church. While the focal point of Serving with Honor is discovering and reaching one's personal calling and destiny, the how-to part will provide eye-opening revelation regarding several principles that modern-day Christians seem totally ignorant about. At times, this book will hit nerves and touch many sensitive issues, but at all times, the scriptures form the foundation of this sorely needed guidebook on serving God's kingdom with honor and reaching one's personal destiny. In the process, many people today are flight risks in their local churches, quick to find greener grass; they forfeit their destinies for a feel-good temporary solution to the pressure of balancing family life with ministry duties. In his book Serving with Honor, Pastor Andrew Robbins calls the church to accountability for her actions. Andrew challenges us to not forsake the process that God is taking us through by aborting God's overall plan for our lives. This book is challenging, convicting, and a great comfort to those of us who still believe in the local church. Pastor Randall Burton, Northview Church, Columbus, IN, founder and president of Zebulun Inc., and author of the book River Rising.

For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. Ephesians 6:12. It is written that there is an ancient war going on, whether you are aware of it or not, whether you believe in that sort of thing or not, and whether you care or not, that battle rages on even now. As you read this, have you ever wondered: Is the devil real? Can people really be possessed by demons? If so, can Christians be affected by demonic activity? What power does the enemy have over me? What power do I have over the enemy? Is there anything I can do to lose that power? Is there anything I can do to gain more power? How do I claim and use my authority in Christ? Is there any way to get the devil to leave?

me and my family alone it is written a field guide to spiritual warfare answers all of these questions and more by pointing the reader to the word of god book chapter and verse for relevant practical application on exactly how to overcome satan and his army as well as how to take the fight to the enemy are you tired of getting pounded on by the devil day after day week after week month after month and year after year if so then this is the path to freedom for you it may surprise you to learn that it is written that if you are an authentic obedient child of god then the devil doesn't have any power over you unless you just give it to him furthermore it is written that if you are indeed in christ then you are actually the one with all the power and authority over the kingdom of darkness behold i give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy and nothing shall by any means hurt you luke 10:19 it is written a field guide to spiritual warfare will teach you exactly how to endorse and enforce this god given power and authority
