installation art provides both a history and a full critical examination of this challenging area of contemporary art from 1960 to the present day using case studies of significant artists and individual works claire bishop argues that as installation art requires its audience to physically enter the artwork in order to experience it installation pieces can be categorised by the type of experience they provide for the viewing subject as well as exploring the methodologies of the artists examined bishop also explains the critical theory that informed their work while revising and in some cases re assessing many well known names this fully illustrated book will introduce the reader to a wide spectrum of younger artists some yet to receive critical attention book jacket this ground breaking work offers a challenging and positive view of postmodern culture it draws on the author s extensive interviews with a number of leading postmodern artists writers and performers including jean baudrillard samuel beckett john cage phillip glass the parameters of postmodernism focuses on both the prevailing negative theories of postmodernism and the more positive aspects of postmodern theory and practice the negative aspect is exemplified by the work of writers like brecht beckett barthes and baudrillard who emphasise the death of artistic innovation and the lack of a permanent reality zurbrugg highlights the contradictions in the arguments of these writers and examines the later works in which they qualify their earlier more infamous statements the positive aspect is characterised by artists such as cage glass and monk who interweave the new postmodern media with confidence and invention and eco grass and wolf who revive mythological and folkloric traditions the parameters of postmodernism argues that in each case high tech or revivalist postmodern creativity culminates in a highly positive synthesis of past present and futuristic materials
