mosul iraq in the 1940s is a teeming multiethnic city where arabs kurds assyrians jews aramaeans turkmens yazidis and syriacs mingle in the ancient souks and alleyways in these crowded streets among rich and poor educated and illiterate pious and unbelieving a boy is growing up burdened with chores from an early age and afflicted with an older brother who persecutes him with mindless sadism the child finds happiness only in stolen moments with his beloved older sister and with friends in the streets closest to his heart are three girls encountered by chance a muslim a christian and a jew after enriching the boy s life immensely all three meet tragic fates leaving a wound in his heart that will not heal a richly textured portrayal of iraqi society before the upheavals of the late twentieth century saeed s novel depicts a sensitive and loving child assailed by the cruelty of life sometimes defeated but never surrendering he is sustained by his city and its people
