what is the theological place of the holy spirit with respect to the forgiveness of sins in the sacrament of penance this study examines the role of the spirit in the theology of sacramental forgiveness of thomas aquinas 1224-5-1274 who is often blamed for the geistverگessenheit of western theology in the first part of this study it is shown that in thomas theology notions like guilt and forgiveness function within the context of a relationship of friendship between god and human beings constitutive for this relationship is the indwelling of god which is appropriated to the holy spirit it is explained that thomas understands appropriation i.e. the practice of ascribing to divine persons individually what belongs to the divine essence in general as a part of proper god talk which takes into account the limitations of our language vis a vis god in the second part of this study it is argued that the notion of the causality of the sacrament of penance i.e. that it effects the forgiveness of sins that it signifies can only be evaluated properly if the sacrament of penance is not only seen as prolongation of the incarnation i.e. the visible mission of the son but also as accompanied by the continuous invisible mission of the holy spirit eric luijten 1964 has been a research fellow of the catholic theological university at utrecht the netherlands and at present is rector of studies of the arienskonvikt the priest seminary of the archdiocese utrecht and the diocese groningen
