appealing to monster theory and the ancient near eastern motif of chaoskampf safwat marzouk argues that the paradoxical character of the category of the monster is what prompts the portrayal of egypt as a monster in the book of ezeziel while on the surface the monster seems to embody utter difference underlying its otherness there is a disturbing sameness though the monster may be defeated and its body dismembered it is never completely annihilated egypt is portrayed as a monster in the book of ezeziel because egypt represents the threat of religious assimilation although initially the monstrosity of egypt is constructed because of the shared elements of identity between egypt and israel the prophet flips this imagery of monster in order to embody egypt as a monstrous other in a combat myth yhwh defeats the monster and dismembers its body despite its near annihilation egypt in ezeziel s rhetoric is not entirely obliterated rather it is kept at bay hovering at the periphery questioning israel s identity
