have you ever thought about how many specific ways jesus is an example of living out the christian life spend the next 25 days exploring the example he gives us of how to obey the commands of scripture in real life i ve been so encouraged and challenged by the lord s life and example as i ve prepared these readings i m excited to share them with you and hope they ll be a blessing and a help in your walk with the lord as they have been in mine each reading is a compilation of bible verses that work together to point out different aspects of christ s example perfect for keeping jesus christ at the center of the busy christmas season these advent readings are designed so you can read one on each day of december leading up to christmas or any time you can use these bible readings yourself or share them as a family for christ centered devotions

this collection of daily readings is a devotional companion for advent the 12 days of christmas the divine office the cycle of daily worship other than the mass is the richest source of liturgical texts and music from the latin middle ages however its richness the great diversity of its manuscripts and its many variations from community to community have made it difficult to study and it remains largely unexplored terrain this volume is a practical guide to the divine office for students and scholars throughout the field of medieval studies the book surveys the many questions related to the office and presents the leading analytical tools and research methods now used in the field beginning with the office in the early middle ages the book covers manuscript sources and their contents regional developments and variations the relationship between the office the mass and other ceremonies and repertories and the deep links between the office and medieval hagiography the book concludes with a discussion of recent technical advances for handling the enormous amounts of evidence on the office and its performance in particular cantus the vast electronic database developed by ruth steiner of catholic university for the analysis of chant repertories the divine office in the latin middle ages is an essential resource for anyone studying medieval liturgy its accessible style and broad coverage make it an important basic reference for a wide range of students and scholars in art history religious studies social history literature musicology and theology though christians the world over make yearly preparations for lent there s a conspicuous lack of good books for that other great spiritual season advent all the same this four week period leading up to christmas is making a comeback as growing numbers reject shopping mall frenzy and examine the deeper meaning of the season ecumenical in scope these fifty devotions invite the reader to contemplate the great themes of christmas and the significance that the coming of jesus has for each of us not only during advent but every day whether dipped into at leisure or used on a daily basis watch for the light gives the phrase holiday preparations new depth and meaning includes writings by christoph friedrich blumhardt sylvia plath j b phillips friedrich wilhelm foerster henri nouwen bernard of clairvaux kathleen norris meister eckhart st thomas aquinas karl rahner isaac penington madeleine l engle alfred delp loretta ross gotta william stringfellow j heinrich arnold edith stein philip britts jane kenyon john howard yoder emmy arnold karl barth oscar romero william willimon johann christoph arnold gail godwin leonardo boff g m hopkins evelyn underhill dorothy day brennan manning dietrich bonhoeffer romano guardini annie dillard martin luther st john chrysostom giovanni papini dorothee soelle c s lewis gustavo guti rrez philip yancey j t clement thomas merton eberhard arnold ernesto cardenal t s eliot john donne gian carlo menotti and j rgen moltmann
