this book explores the concept of cognitive injustice the failure to recognise the different ways of knowing by which people across the globe run their lives and provide meaning to their existence boaventura de sousa santos shows why global social justice is not possible without global cognitive justice santos argues that western domination has profoundly marginalised knowledge and wisdom that had been in existence in the global south she contends that today it is imperative to recover and valorize the epistemological diversity of the world epistemologies of the south outlines a new kind of bottom up cosmopolitanism in which conviviality solidarity and life triumph against the logic of market ridden greed and individualism in the end of the cognitive empire boaventura de sousa santos further develops his concept of the epistemologies of the south in which he outlines a theoretical methodological and pedagogical framework for challenging the dominance of eurocentric thought as a collection of knowledges born of and anchored in the experiences of marginalized peoples who actively resist capitalism colonialism and patriarchy epistemologies of the south represent those forms of knowledge that are generally discredited erased and ignored by dominant cultures of the global north noting the declining efficacy of established social and political solutions to combat inequality and discrimination santos suggests that global justice can only come about through an epistemological shift that guarantees cognitive justice such a shift would create new alternative strategies for political mobilization and activism and give oppressed social groups the means through which to represent the world as their own and in their own terms the coronavirus pandemic forces us to rethink our contemporaneity it has brought to the surface dimensions of human fragility that partially contradict the euphoria and human hubris of the fourth industrial revolution artificial intelligence it has also aggravated the social inequality and racial discrimination that characterize our societies the book argues that the virus rather than an enemy must be viewed as a pedagogue it is trying to teach us that the deep causes of the pandemic lie in our dominant mode of production and consumption the systemic overload of natural resources creates a metabolic rift between society and nature that destabilizes the habitat of wild animals and the vital cycles of natural regeneration whereby pandemics become an increasingly recurrent phenomenon in trying to take seriously this lesson the book proposes a paradigmatic shift from the current civilizatory model to a new one guided by a more equitable relationship between nature and society and the priority of life both human and non modern state law excludes populations peoples and social groups by making them invisible irrelevant or dangerous in this book boaventura de sousa santos offers a radical critique of the law and develops an innovative paradigm of socio legal studies which is based on the historical experience of the global south he traces the history of modern law as an abyssal law or a kind of law that is theoretically invisible yet implements profound exclusions in practice this abyssal line has been the key procedure used by modern modes of domination capitalism colonialism and patriarchy to divide people into two groups the metropolitan and the colonial or the fully human and the sub human crucially de sousa santos rejects the decadent pessimism that claims that we are living through the end of history instead this book offers practical hopeful alternatives to social exclusion and modern legal domination aiming to make post abyssal legal utopias a reality at each particular historical moment the university appears as a heavy and rigid structure resisting changes whereas throughout time it has actually undergone profound transformation often such changes have been drastic and almost always provoked by factors external to the university be they of a religious political or economic nature this book explores the nature and dynamics of the transformation that the university is undergoing today it argues that some of the projects of reform currently under way are so radical that the question of the future of the university may well turn into the question of whether the university has a future a specific feature of this inquiry is the realisation that questioning the future of the university involves questioning its past as well
