the arab world has played a very important role in the history of urbanization it is the region where urban civilization was born and where urban matters have been addressed for centuries the arab urban civilization as it has evolved over the past millennium has generated some of the most beautiful cities in the world this publication is the first ever to comprehensively analyze urbanization processes in the arab states through the review of its four sub regions the maghreb the mashreq the gulf cooperation council countries and the least developed arab countries of the southern tier cooperation and clusters have become the guiding paradigms for explaining and promoting regional competitiveness but the cooperation process between firms and universities and the transfer of knowledge in guiding and nurturing regional competitiveness has received relatively little attention this book strives to fill this gap in highlighting the connection between inter firm cooperation in regional clusters innovation and regional networks and the role of universities in them it goes beyond the traditional economic approach of clusters and includes soft factors in the explanation of regional competitiveness and connects the literature on clusters to the literature of learning and knowledge creation as sources of regional competitiveness it aims to foster an international and interdisciplinary exchange of perspectives by presenting current developments case studies best practices as well as new integrated theoretical approaches and applications understanding the complexity of sustainability is crucial for the leadership of business organizations national governments and non governmental organizations this second edition of the bestselling book the three levels of sustainability uses the same interdependent three level and three dimensional framework as the first edition encompassing societal organizational and individual levels to clearly demonstrate what sustainability means and how to implement it this new edition incorporates important developments in reporting and measuring corporate behaviors the impact of covid 19 and the un sustainable development goals more and more societies are becoming aware of their dependence on earth s resources however there is still a deep rooted lack of awareness of the connection between society s ambitions for economic growth earth s limitations and unequal distribution of wealth prominent institutions and organizations and their leaders rely on the conformable belief that more quantity equals more quality and that more growth equals more development although some progress has been made since the publication of the first edition the world is increasingly characterized by division rising dissatisfaction and growing inequality between countries communities and people at the same time it is anticipated that global warming will reach a point of no return between 2030 and 2052 the fundamental paradigm shift in the way the development process must be navigated is better served by a holistic and inclusive multilevel and multidimensional approach meant to gradually align the critical institutional and individual factors essential to the pathway toward sustainable development the book has been established as an excellent primer to explain the complex issues around sustainability for postgraduate and undergraduate students as well as busy professionals and those already in management and leadership positions in the private public or non profit sectors
