essay from the year 2011 in the subject philosophy philosophy of the 20th century language english abstract the directions often and repeatedly taken in most of the works that have been undertaken on foucault are to place him within the general continental philosophy to examine the theoretical and methodological breaks and continuities within his work and between his work and other major figures in the discipline to examine the nature of his work that is to say whether he can be placed part on the thesis the accepted classics of continental thought or with the postmodern post structural antithesis to examine the outcome of his work or what impacts his work has had on western culture the present study rather asks a very simple and straightforward question and that is how did the way foucault use historical archaeology allowed him as an analyst to change himself from within or how foucault s usage of language constantly changed himself from within or what is there in language if it comes from outside that transforms the reader from within this study introduces antihumanism as the pivotal element in foucault s work and reads his work from an althusserian structural marxist perspective
