millions of people go to work each day some unhappily if they don't like what they're doing or it doesn't interest them others only concerned about the pay they will receive and the financial rewards while others are an example of what hannah arendt calls the animal laborans workers who have no other objective or aim than the very work that life has placed before them and which they carry out by natural inclination or by inertia at a higher level is the figure of the homo faber the person who works with a wider view with the aim of making a business or a project a success sometimes seeking personal affirmation but often with the noble aspiration of serving others and serving society as a whole christians ought to be in this last category and even higher if they really are christians they will not see themselves as slaves or as paid workers but as children of god for whom work is a vocation and a divine mission to be carried out for love and with love work is man's vocation the place for his development as a child of god further it is the matter of his sanctification and the fulfillment of his apostolic mission hence the christian should not be afraid of effort or tiredness but should embrace them with joy a joy that has its roots in the shape of the cross the last sentence comes from st josemaría escrivá the saint who taught us to sanctify our work turning it into nothing less than the work of god the pages of this book are inspired by his message or rather they are inspired by the message of the gospel since st josemaría did nothing other than to teach us the words and life of jesus above all in his years spent in nazareth working with st joseph from whom he learnt to work as an artisan and with our lady who served him with her work in the home

el autor explora la relación del fundador del opus dei con la liturgia al hilo de su biografía y del contexto del concilio vaticano ii se detiene así al considerar la misa como corriente trinitaria de amor y centro y raíz de la vida del cristiano que debe prolongar su efecto durante toda la jornada para ello recurre a abundantes citas textuales de san josemaría y al hilo de ellas ofrece un comentario detenido de la santa misa el concilio vaticano ii reconoció solemnemente la misteriosa y operativa presencia de la iglesia en la existencia y en la acción de los laicos señalando que están especialmente llamados a hacer presente y operante a la iglesia en aquellos lugares y circunstancias en que sólo puede llegar a ser sal de la tierra a través de ellos lumen gentium sin embargo este novedoso mensaje está aún a la espera de una auténtica toma de conciencia por parte de los mismos fieles laicos de una mayor profundización teológica y de una verdadera asimilación en el plano pastoral la presente monografía es un valioso intento de responder al segundo de estos retos para ello la autora explora inicialmente la comprensión eclesial de los laicos en los primeros siglos del cristianismo a través de los testimonios de la escritura y de los padres de la iglesia pasa a analizar el adormecimiento de esta percepción en los siglos posteriores y su despertar en el siglo xx y finalmente presenta y profundiza en la propuesta teórica y práctica del concilio vaticano ii y de la teología del siglo xx con la mirada puesta en los nuevos retos que propone el actual escenario de la nueva evangelización desde hace un siglo el opus dei irradia en el mundo un mensaje de encuentro con dios en la vida corriente no es poco lo que se ha escrito sobre esta institución y sobre su fundador josemaría escrivá pero es la primera vez que se lleva a cabo una investigación exhaustiva con acceso a toda la documentación que se conserva y a numerosos testimonios orales los autores ambos historiadores narran la génesis y el desarrollo del opus dei sus iniciativas y su recorrido jurídico y la acogida de su espiritualidad entre hombres y mujeres de condición muy diversa en los cinco continentes su relato no elude los momentos de incomprensión y dificultad y constituye así un texto imprescindible para quien desee conocer con más hondura esta prelatura personal de la iglesia católica
