most scholarship on mary lambert s pet semetary 1989 overarchingly focuses on the stephen king novel 1983 and tends strongly towards housing the story within the gothic literary tradition the film itself is often absent from considerations of north american horror cinema of the 1980s and from wider horror scholarship in general this devil s advocate stands as a corrective and provides a holistic analysis textual contextual and industrial of the film in order to properly situate it as an important entry into the history of horror cinema this book joins a growing body of works both journalistic and academic that aim to revisit older films in order to call attention to and or redress the gendered imbalance in our written horror histories mcmurdo charges pet sematary with several contributions to the horror genre as an important entry within the tradition of grief horror as a horror film that both adheres to and defies the generic conventions of its historical context one both engaged with and respondent to its time of creation as a film that changed the fortunes of the cinematic stephen king brand on the cusp of a new decade pet sematary is the highest grossing horror film directed by a woman in cinematic history and it stands as a story that we keep returning to as seen by the 1992 sequel the 2019 remake and a forthcoming prequel pet sematary s modern relevance and importance to genre history then is manifold and this book argues it is past time for its reconsideration as a classic of horror cinema in order to revert back to his regular sized self train sets out to see dr tearju a woman who bears a striking resemblance to the girl eve but before she can help train return to normal the apostles of the stars come crashing in with the intent of forcing dr tearju to join their ranks a mysterious new weapon may be the only hope for keeping the apostles at bay viz media with her fate lying in sephiria s manipulative hands rinslet becomes a pawn in the cerberus commando team s search for creed and their ongoing attempt to destroy the apostles of the star meanwhile a stranger sends train sven and eve on a mission to find a missing person they may already know all too well viz media after surviving another attack by the apostles train and his partners agree that they have to eliminate creed at sven s urging train finally reveals the details of his past the nature of his relationship with saya minatsuki the reasons for his quitting the chrono numbers and the cause of his violent hatred of creed viz media glin a mysterious information broker is forming a sweeper alliance in order to destroy creed and the apostles of the stars he invites train eve and sven to join their group but even if this motley crew can locate the apostles hiding place will they be able to survive the perilous journey to get there viz media
