incarnate earth reimagines the doctrine of incarnation by extending the unity between creator and creation beyond jesus to the entire world in dialogue with contemporary theologies of deep incarnation and the philosophy of emmanuel levinas the author argues that the face of christ is encountered in the cruciform demand for justice embodied in the creaturely finitude and vulnerability that grounds ethics central to this vision is a recognition that the religious role functions at the heart of jesus life the revelation of god and the redemption of the world are performed throughout the physical world irreducible to humanity or one heroic representative of the species thus the human encounters the divine christ in and as the face of any vulnerable thing animal vegetal elemental or otherwise not as a transcendent being mediated through humanity the radical nature of this reimagination
