discipleship and unity bonhoeffer s ecumenical theology presents a fresh approach to church unity and discipleship from a familiar voice building constructively from the thought of dietrich bonhoeffer cole jodon offers an account of ecumenism in which the church is understood to be united as the person of christ a unity that is concrete today through active obedient discipleship to develop this theology jodon draws from bonhoeffer s ecumenical engagement which is deepened through the theology of bonhoeffer s wider corpus jodon illumines bonhoeffer s dynamic understanding of the church its unity and the manner in which that unity is made concrete in the world at its heart this book serves to advance an ecumenical theology enlivened by the living and present christ who calls his church to follow after him together the disciple iii remember who you are study manual combines direction and information enabling study of the text the bible two titles in the commentary section of the manual reflect ideas central to the prophets and paul s letters the word of the lord picks up a familiar phrase from the prophets a clear statement of their calling they spoke and speak for god each member of the group needs a study manual and a bible the bible is the text for the study and the study manual will guide group members in their study and preparation for the weekly group session the study manual also includes suggestions for individual research and study related activities space is provided for taking notes while reading scripture for recording thoughts and questions arising out of daily study and for notes during the weekly group session the titles of the sessions along with theme words and theme verses and major persons events and topics will set the sequence of the biblical story in the minds of the participants the principal scripture for each session follows the chronological movement of the biblical story disciple iii remember who you are is the third study in the four phase disciple program the driving idea in this study is the connection between memory and identity as the people of god the word you in the title is meant to be heard both in its singular form the individual and its plural form the community we are a community of memory participants in this 32 week study will read the major and minor old testament prophets with the exception of daniel and will read the thirteen letters traditionally attributed to paul to establish the historical context in which the prophets spoke for god daily reading assignments draw also on the books of deuteronomy through chronicles several themes weave their way through the study the call to remember the call to repentance the need for renewed vision and the place of community the prophets and paul are continually calling hearers and readers back to their god and to a sense of who they are as a people set apart commitment and time involved 32 week study three and one half to four hours of independent study each week 40 minutes daily for leaders and 30 minutes daily for group members in preparation for weekly group meetings attendance at weekly 2 5 hour meetings this volume offers a comprehensive examination of both historical and theological aspects of exorcism in christianity s first two centuries everyone is being discipled the question is what is discipling us the majority of christians today are being discipled by popular media flashy events and folk theology because churches have neglected their responsibility to make disciples but the church is not a secondary platform in the mission of god it is the primary platform god uses to grow people into the image of jesus therefore as church leaders it is our primary responsibility to establish environments and relationships where people can be trained grow and be sent as disciples there are three indispensable elements of discipleship learning to participate in the biblical story the bible growing in our confession of who god is and who we are theology regularly participating in private and corporate intentional action spiritual disciplines deep discipleship equips churches to reclaim the responsibility of discipling people at any point on their journey the gospel of mark is the shortest and often the most neglected gospel account in this collection of lessons originally given to a group of wonderful teens shelby and elisabeth pritchard bring out some of the incredible life changing truths to be found in this fascinating account of the life and work of jesus christ the son of god the savior of humanity this collection of 24 lessons highlights and explains the main idea of each section pericope of scripture by clearly communicating the context of each passage outlining it and then proceeding with the lightly edited lesson on that unit each lesson is full of explanation illustration and application that will help bring out the incredible wonders of god s word biblically grounded and unflinchingly dedicated to the truth and relevance of the bible we hope these lessons serve you well feel free to enjoy them in personal study use this as a basis for a 6 month series or consult it from time to time while writing your own works our only prayer is that this collection aids others in understanding who god is what he has accomplished for us and his mission for our lives to god be the glory
