major papers from the second round of lutheran orthodox dialogue begun in 1983 and sponsored by the standing conference of the canonical orthodox bishops in the americas the evangelical lutheran church in america and the lutheran church missouri synod first round was held between 1967 and 1969

carl braaten s memoirs tell the story of his life as a theologian from his early years as a missionary kid in madagascar to his years of study at the universities of paris harvard heidelberg and oxford to his decades of teaching throughout the book he delves into the many theological movements controversies and personalities that shaped his thinking and writing braaten s fight for the faith is reflected in his theological work spoken and written that tangles with the isms of the surrounding culture of american religion because of christ is more than simply a biography it is a chronicle of the chief theological conflicts of the twentieth century that put the integrity of the gospel to the test lutheran tradition has in various ways influenced attitudes to work the economy the state education and health care one reason that lutheran theology has been interpreted in various ways is that it is always influenced by surrounding social and cultural contexts in a society where the church has lost a great deal of its cultural impact and authority and where there is a plurality of religious convictions the question of lutheran identity has never been more urgent however this question is also raised in the global south where lutheran churches need to find their identity in a relationship with several other religions here this relationship is developed from a minority perspective is it possible to develop a lutheran political theology that gives adequate contributions to issues concerning social and economic justice what is the role of women in church and society around the world is it possible to interpret lutheran theology in such a way that it includes liberating perspectives these are some of the questions and issues discussed in this book karl p donfried smith college a penetrating analysis of western christianity in crisis as well as an incisive and compelling guide for course correction written with clarity insight and conviction that all may believe is braaten at his very best a must read for christians in the northern hemisphere gabriel fackre author of the church who else but carl braaten could show us an ecumenical vision of theology as evangelical but not simply protestant catholic but not just roman orthodox but not only eastern here is a needed call to share our ecclesial gifts with mutual affirmation on classical convictions and mutual admonition regarding teachable differences yet all this is done with a well known braaten edge indictment of conventional christianity and a drifting academic theology we are in the author s debt for charting the right course toward visible unity and full communion for a church solid in its centralities and passionate about its mission frank c senn immanuel lutheran church evanston illinois employing his gift for incisive analysis of theological movements and trends according to the criterion of the saving gospel of jesus christ braaten affirms the catholic tradition with its canon of scripture and historic dogmas as the indispensable bearer of the gospel with evangelical passion for the missionary enterprise he shows how the church must move toward ecumenical unity in order to bring the world to belief he does not ignore the reality of the powers of evil that strive against the mission of the gospel nor does he shrink from saying that dialogue with the religions must not blunt the apostolic imperative to proclaim the gospel and bring converts into the community of faith in the crucified and risen christ this timely book confessionally anchored and ecumenically hopeful will engage theological readers from beginning to end carl e braaten is one of the leading theologians in american lutheranism he taught systematic theology for a generation at lutheran school of theology at chicago and was founding editor of the popular theological journal dialog he has written or edited many foundational works in lutheran theology among them is a two volume christian dogmatics 1985 edited with robert jenson and justification the article by which the church stands or falls 1990 for thirteen years braaten has been director of the center for catholic and evangelical theology and editor of its journal pro ecclesia hans joachim iwand s 1941 monograph the righteousness of faith according to luther is an important contribution to contemporary appreciation of luther s theological significance for today although iwand wrote his study three decades after the beginning of the luther renaissance it nevertheless developed some of the central insights of luther scholarship during that period two concepts in particular promise and simultaneity are crucial to an appreciative understanding of luther s doctrine of justification the language of promise presents justification to the believer as a reality that has yet to arrive or is hidden under present reality and the language of simultaneity attests that humans remain throughout their lives one in the same sinner and saint this beautiful translation by randi h lundell makes iwand s down to earth presentation of the doctrine at the heart of luther s theology at long last available to english language readers
