a lucid summary and interpretation of the christian faith from one of the leading christian poets of our time jeremy begbie duke university i give you a new commandment that you love one another just as i have loved you you also should love one another jesus christ christianity began as a minor sect within judaism and has become one of the major world religions what started as a small group of people who shared the same language lifestyle and background is now a movement which embraces many different languages and cultures giving rise to an astonishing variety of practices and interpretations yet all with a common basis of shared faith inspired by the teaching life death and new life of a carpenter from nazareth how did this happen what do christians believe was written for the reader looking for quick practical insights into the beliefs and practices of christianity jesus himself identified love as the essential element in both worship and daily life using this teaching and the core christian belief that jesus was god s way of opening himself to humanity theologian poet and songwriter malcolm guite explains the inner meaning of such key christian teachings as atonement redemption and the concept of god as trinity summaries and comparisons of basic christian beliefs on topics such as doctrines baptism end times and life after death provided by publisher many people today both christians and non christians are confused about or unaware of the essentials of christian faith in this book anna wierzbicka takes a radically new approach to the task of communicating what christians believe to the widest possible audience the story of god and people the heart of the book sets out the core tenets of christian faith in narrative form using simple language that is accessible to anyone even those with no familiarity with christianity or christian vocabulary the story is not only simple but also universal though written in english it is not phrased in full english english as we know it today shaped by history culture and tradition but in minimal english minimal english contains only those 400 or so english words that can be translated into any other language essentially it corresponds to the shared core of all languages in the introduction to the book wierzbicka explains minimal english and minimal languages in general and in the story of god and people that follows she demonstrates the effectiveness of minimal english as a tool for global understanding at the same time the use of minimal english allows her not only to retell the christian story in a strikingly new way but also to rethink its meaning bringing into relief its internal cohesion logic and beauty this reader friendly yet robust introduction to the christian faith explores the essentials of christianity and the impact they have on life worldview and witness written in an accessible and engaging voice for college age readers the book connects the biblical plotline the apostles creed the comparative distinctiveness of christianity and life s big questions the author shows how the christian metanarrative speaks to questions about purpose worth ethics personhood and more and helps readers understand what it means to be a christian in a post christian world brilliantly illuminates contemporary conflicts and crises in the churches and links them with disputes between the early christians many of us believe what we do because we were raised in a particular church under a particular view in the faith with particular traditions that being the case as we get older we tend to stick with this belief system or drop it all together this however is no reason to believe in a particular doctrine or subscribe to a particular denomination it simply is no answer and is less of a reason in and of itself to believe in or serve under some religious pretense we should not base our beliefs on some emotional experience we had which we cannot really explain with any substance other than to attribute the experience to something we want to believe was spiritual or god inspired this choice belief and faith should not be an unexplainable gut feeling or some thought shrouded in a cosmic concept of god that is neither specific nor explainable neither should we hide behind peer pressure that makes us feel guilty if we denied having any real belief in the existence of god at all none of these aspects are the basis to knowing anything let alone foundations of a faith the question then becomes how do we know what is true and what to believe on the ground where we live what are the facts behind the faith and what is folklore how can we know for certain many attribute their belief based on some life experience but these experiences are often cloud ed because of some traumatic emotional circumstance any answers we tend to get for these moments are either vague or wrapped in some traditional antidote leaving us unsatisfied in many cases we would be better off making something up to believe on our own at least that way it would be more personal in the christian faith finding these and other answers to even harder questions are relegated to the scriptures of the bible the challenge there is that we can get answers that may be couched in religious doctrine there are over 2300 evolving translations of the bible which have been used by millions over time to manipulate billions of people for thousands of years the bible has been used to justify countless evils and atrocities how then can we trust a writing that has been so manipulated over the ages if the bible and all that it represents is not real and not the absolute literal truth our faith on any front is without merit and we have all been played the fool there have been many books written about the bible examining and criticizing even supporting the scriptures this effort will attempt to answer a simple yet compelling question what is behind the faith an important answer book for everyone from seeker to long time believer systematically covering the fundamentals of bible doctrine and christian living we should not base our beliefs on some emotional experience we had which we cannot really explain with any substance other than to attribute the experience to something we want to believe was spiritual or god inspired this choice belief and faith should not be an unexplainable gut feeling or some thought shrouded in a cosmic concept of god that is neither specific nor explainable neither should we hide behind peer pressure that makes us feel guilty if we denied having any real belief in the existence of god at all none of these aspects are the basis to knowing anything let alone foundations of a faith the question then becomes how do we know what is true and what to believe on the ground where we live what are the facts and what is folklore how can we know for certain this writing is intended to discuss what is biblically spoken of behind the faith of what christians believe it is not however about conspiracies in the church or an attempt to air any dirty laundry the book of revelation was chosen as the principle text of this discourse because it is intermingled throughout scripture like no other it provides seamless segues that will open up opportunities to address other related questions in scripture as we examine what is behind the faith where do you go when the critics question the existence of god and the christian faith charles colson explains the foundations of faith bridging the gap between belief understanding and life be inspired as you read powerful stories of personal change that passionate intelligent believers have made for centuries read the faith live the faith rightly understood and rightly communicated the christian faith is one of great joy it is an invitation to god s kingdom where tears are replaced by laughter and longing hearts find their purpose and their home this is the heart of the gospel god s search to reclaim us and love us as his own but have we truly grasped this those of us who have disdained christianity as a religion of bigotry have we repudiated the genuine article or merely demonstrated our own prejudice and ignorance those of us who are christians have we deeply apprehended the mission of jesus and do our ways and character faithfully reflect his beauty from the nature of god to the human condition to the work of jesus to god s coming kingdom and all that lies between how well do we understand the foundational truths of christianity and their implications the faith is a book for our troubled times and for decades to come for christians and non christians alike it is the most important book chuck colson and harold fickett have ever written a thought provoking soul searching and powerful manifesto of the great historical central truths of christianity that have sustained believers through the centuries brought to immediacy with vivid true stories here is what christianity is really about and why it is a religion of hope redemption and beauty renowned historian jeffrey burton russell famous for his studies of medieval history sets the record straight against the new atheists and other cultural critics who charge christianity with being outdated destructive superstitious unenlightened racist colonialist based on fabrication and other significant false accusations for christians who want to understand more about their faith this is a useful introduction that is also a helpful christian doctrine for newcomers today s modern technology and scientific knowledge contradicts all religious dogma created in ancient times by ignorant and superstitious people who had just learned to write modern science can test the strength of one s faith and it can make him a skeptic causing him to discard the religious beliefs of his family for generations past deep religious experiences or self induced delusions can be explained by physical psychological biological and medical sciences today evil or sin is the result of social and mental conditions and can be corrected with education and medication today and without the help of an imaginary god to quote mark twain faith is to believe in what you know for sure is not true the god dilemma is an unscientific investigation to justify believing in religion today and in particular the christian faith it argues that scientific and logical discussions about religion and the existence of god are futile however we cannot stop thinking about it humans are maybe born with a faith in god s existence and with a conscience that tells them which is morally and ethically right and which is not author thomas used to believe in religion god and christianity through his teenage years but even if he learned to ignore it during his 50 adult years he never consciously discarded his christian faith he now shares his investigations and attempts to believe in jesus christ once again despite today s knowledge of the universe and evolution and by ignoring the sanctimonious behavior of fundamentalist us christians in the international scene thomas believes that the us wars since wwii cannot be justified by the life and the teachings of jesus christ there is an underlying moral claim by fundamentalist christian americans that its actions are justified by jesus and christianity the new phenomenon called christian zionism which requires the removal of palestinians from their homeland to create and expand israel to enable the second coming of christ categorically contradicts the teachings of jesus in the four gospels zionism is based on the old testament bible otb and revelations in the new testament both of which are scientifically ridiculous the otb is also historically questionable about a god interacting with his only chosen people in middle east and morally criminal god sponsored and assisted armed robbery and genocide to create israel ancient and modern by today s legal and ethical standards why has the life and teachings of jesus christ not produced universal love and non violence among christians why are american christians the most active supporters of or not speaking out against the wars bombing and destruction by the usa since wwii are ashkenazi european jews really the descendants of semitic slaves from egypt what were the reasons for anti semitism and the holocaust in christian europe of the past why is the european union and the us punishing the palestinians for the holocaust crimes in europe can god s orders in the bible be legally used by the united nations to recreate israel again in the 20th century after 3000 years by getting rid of palestinians the book seeks to inform and provoke critical thinking of the readers through this investigation into religion and god and in particular the violent intolerant and self righteous behavior of christians for centuries past and even in today s enlightened age using the source of the christian religion the bible
