Let's study Hebrews is the fifth volume in the new testament series of solid reformed bible study guides. Different authors are participating in the production of this series to bring together some of the best hearts and minds available to help understand what the bible means by what it says. The series aim is exposition of scripture written in the language of a friend seated alongside you with an open bible. Hywel Jones is professor of practical theology at Westminster Theological Seminary in California. He has served as editorial director of the Banner of Truth Trust and has ministered in churches in Wrexham, Wales and London, England.

The epistle to the Hebrews is one of the more difficult books of the bible to interpret, yet it is important to study primarily because it helps us to understand the relation between the old and new testaments. The main theme of Hebrews is the relation between the old testament and the new testament.

Most people live with a cacophony of voices demanding attention from work and family to telemarketers and movie myths. Voices inside and voices outside all saying, "Do this." Hebrews invites each reader to listen to God more specifically. Everyone should listen to God's ultimate messenger, Jesus. Immersion Hebrews invites readers to do just that and prepares them to hear with an open heart. Easy to follow, step-by-step suggestions for leading a group are provided, as well as questions to facilitate group discussion. Immersion, inspired by a fresh translation, the Common English Bible, stands firmly on scripture and helps readers explore the emotional, spiritual, and intellectual needs of their personal faith. More importantly, they'll be able to discover God's revelation through readings and reflections.

Unfortunately, many Christians find the book of Hebrews simply too daunting to study for themselves. In Hold Fast to Jesus, Elizabeth comes alongside and guides the reader carefully through this important part of scripture in a way that is clear and significant. In her works, Elizabeth has always demonstrated a keen ability to take the deep, perhaps complicated aspects of scripture and lead one to a proper understanding of the biblical text. She demonstrates this ability again with Hold Fast to Jesus. The one who joins her on this journey will learn to navigate the text to appreciate its implications for living, to marvel at the greatness of Christ, and to hold fast to the word of the gospel all the while. Elizabeth's humble spirit and infectious love for Jesus will be evident. I commend this study to anyone who would love to have a more profound faith in and love for Jesus. Dr. Randall McKinion, Asst. VP for Academics, Asst. Professor for Cedarville University. Whether we're sailing through rough seas or smooth waters, our only hope is to hold fast to Jesus.

he is the anchor for our souls in this study of the personal passionate letter of exhortation to go on to maturity we'll consider deep doctrines including the new covenant atonement holiness and eternal salvation we'll worship the exalted son of god who is our high priest we'll be warned not to drift away from our great salvation we'll be encouraged to persevere through suffering as the great heroes of the faith did the letter to the hebrews was written over 1900 years ago and it was written to a group of christians who were well aware of the jewish practices of worship they may have been considering returning to judaism that probably doesn't describe you today but the main point of the letter is as vitally important now as it was then jesus is our great high priest who has provided what no other priest of any religion ever could the sacrifice of his sinless life makes forgiveness available to all who believe in him as their savior let us fix our eyes on jesus and hold fast to him there is no one better

Can Christians lose their salvation? Are there such things as guardian angels? Can those in heaven see the happenings on earth? How were the Old Testament saints saved since Jesus hadn't been born yet? Jesus said to the thief on the cross, "Today you shall be with me in paradise," but he wasn't raised from the dead until three days later and didn't ascend into heaven until many days after that. Did Jesus lie? Using an in-depth study of the book of Hebrews, Dr. Jory explores answers from the Bible for these and a host of other questions about God and the Christian faith. Biblical commentaries come in all shapes, sizes, and levels of detail and complexity. Dr. Jory's approach is to ratchet down the complexity; it seeks to present material with these questions always in focus: What would I want to learn from the Bible? How would I want it to be taught to me? The material is presented in short lessons structured to be covered over a forty-day period and is geared for both individual and small group Bible studies.

This book is about the relationship between the media, the Monitor newspaper in particular, and politics from the first newspapers started by missionaries in the 19th century to 1999 in the 21st century when the Nation Media Group of Kenya stretched its tentacles into Uganda by gaining a controlling stake in the Monitor Publications Ltd. The book explores the Monitor's love and hate relationship with the NRA government: why did the newspaper survive a government advertisement ban slapped on it, and why did it thrive despite its critical stance?

Studies in the book of Hebrews is a thought-provoking exploration of the epistle to the Hebrews. This book aims to guide readers in understanding the deeper meaning of the text not by imposing interpretations but by allowing the Holy Spirit to reveal the treasures within through careful meditation on the words of this epistle. Readers will discover a source of joy and strength that comes from a clearer understanding of God's message.
