both a personal memoir and a french novelist s encounter with american reality white dog is an unforgettable portrait of racism and hypocrisy set in the tumultuous los angeles of 1968 romain gary s story begins when a german shepherd strays into his life he was watching me his head cocked to one side with that unbearable intensity of dogs in the pound waiting for a rescuer a lost police canine this white dog is programmed to respond violently to the sight of a black man and gary s attempts to deprogram it like his attempts to protect his wife the actress jean seberg like her endeavors to help black activists like his need to rescue himself from the predicament of being trapped lock stock and barrel within a human skin lead from crisis to grief using the re education of this adopted pet as a metaphor for the need to quash american racism gary develops a domestic crisis into a full scale social allegory the dog has been occupying a prominent place in our homes and at our sides for many years it is normal to come across him at any time in our literature or when visiting a website sometimes he occupies the central place and there are many books that have been devoted to him sometimes by writers less well known than their companions other times he is just making the scene more lively more truthful because without him where would be the soul of our home through these quotes you will first travel in time across regions religions and cultures the bible einstein mahomet queen elisabeth ii shakespeare agatha christie and many others this little journey into the heart of wisdom or in the company of famous personalities will give you all the delights that our fourlegged friends deserve and at the heart of all these treasures i m sure you will find valuable thoughts to illuminate your every day
