this volume provides an overview of the state of internationalisation of legal education iole in many civil law and common law countries it provides a picture of the status of the debate about the shape and degree of internationalisation in the curriculum in the different countries and the debates surrounding the adoption of a more international approach to legal education in the contemporary world it is a compilation of the national reports submitted for the august 2014 congress of the iacel held at vienna and contains an introductory general report together the reports examine such questions as why is the topic of internationalization of legal education on the agenda now why is it a relevant subject for examination today does the topic generate the same level of interest everywhere in the world is enthusiasm for iole mainly driven by the academic sector by government by multinational corporations is the interest closely linked with the globalization of the practice of law or is globalisation of law itself something of a myth or a reality reserved for only a very small percentage of practising lawyers around the world the general and national reports make clear that there is indeed widespread interest in iole and numerous disparate initiatives around the world nonetheless some national reporters state that the topic is simply not on the agenda at all all in all the volume shows that the approaches to internationalisation are many and varied but every jurisdiction recognises the importance of introducing aspiring lawyers to a more integrated global environment the confessions of an illuminati narrative of leo lyon zagami is projected to the reality of today including the occult maneuvers behind the new world order in this unprecedented scenario we also have the involvement of the big media moguls like ted turner and silvio berlusconi and their role in manipulating perceptions the author discusses further aspects of the satanic infiltration of freemasonry pointing out the many ways of defending yourself psychically against black magicians as well as against the many sects operating in the illuminati network in this book phan le ha identifies and discusses four growing self sustained sustaining fundamental phenomena in transnational education the namely 1 the planned evolving and transformative mediocrity behind the endorsement of english medium education legitimized by the interactive asia the west relationship 2 the strategic employment of the terms asia asian and west western by all stakeholders in their perceptions and construction of choice quality rigour reliability and attractiveness of programs courses and locations 3 the adjusted desire for an imagined and often misinformed west among various stakeholders of transnational education and 4 the assigned and self realized ownership of english by otherwise normally on the margin groups of speakers a focus on how these phenomena impact questions of identity and desire in the is a running theme the above phenomena are discussed against the backdrop of the rise of asia sentiment and how this sentiment has played out in interactions and relationships between the west and asia and among asian institutions and various entities phan le ha s examination of the identified phenomena in the has been informed by her multi layered engagement with the dialectic of the asia the west relationship her critical take on certain pro asia and decolonisation scholarship and her interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary approach to theorise the field and the specific topic under scrutiny phan le ha shows that the current asia chooses not necessarily by force but largely by will and often with an informed and well articulated agency to go with the idea of the west and often desires an affiliation with the west either directly or indirectly something that is getting more intense in the context of globalization regionalization and commercialization of education the rise of asia has made the idea of the west even more looked for in asia tne in asia in many ways is the transforming and dynamic transit point a layover that facilitates entry into a wanted destination the west and or the idea of the west the west and asia need one another more than ever in the context of the internationalization and commercialization of higher education what s more the west and asia have hardly ever been mutually exclusive but have rather been in an eventful love and obsession relationship with each other this is the very dialectic proposition that phan le ha takes throughout this book while paying specific attention to transnational higher education in the greater asian region including the middle east following her several research projects conducted in the region since 2005 to date transnational education crossing the west and asia explores english internationalisation of higher education and identity increasing academic monolingualism and english only package transnational education and dream realization from the philippines to vietnam from afghanistan to dubai from everywhere in asia to thailand desiring international transnational education theorisation of key concepts and next steps from here the book will be of interest to researchers in the field of transnational education asia education and education policy

during the last twenty years burgeoning transnational trade investment and production linkages have emerged in the area between the indian and pacific oceans the appearance of this area of interdependence and interaction and its potential impact on global order has
