this book critically analyses how men in prison act out their masculine identities it considers how men negotiate their time in prison which can involve being placed into a feminine position relative to other men and particularly looks at the subversion of heteronormative gender positionings through bodies spaces time and relationships vulnerability is also taken as a key consideration and men are shown to act out their masculinities for the benefit of an audience that matters to them however that audience is shown to be subject to change at any point in time using extensive ethnographic data drawn from adult male prisoners the book adopts the viewpoint of the individual prisoner as a frame to consider masculinity it also advances ethnographic research in criminology by reflecting upon the identity of researchers in prisons particularly the female researcher s gendered identity in such environments it will be of great interest to scholars of penology gender and ethnography everything in this book is fictional and everything is true wrote victor serge in the epigraph to men in prison i have attempted through literary creation to bring out the general meaning and human content of a personal experience the author of men in prison served five years in french penitentiaries 1912 1917 for the crime of criminal association in fact for his courageous refusal to testify against his old comrades the infamous tragic bandits of french anarchism while i was still in prison serge later recalled fighting off tuberculosis insanity depression the spiritual poverty of the men the brutality of the regulations i already saw one kind of justification of that infernal voyage in the possibility of describing it among the thousands who suffer and are crushed in prison and how few men really know that prison i was perhaps the only one who could try one day to tell all there is no novelist s hero in this novel unless that terrible machine prison is its real hero it is not about me about a few men but about men all men crushed in that dark corner of society ironically serge returned to writing upon his release from a gpu prison in soviet russia where he was arrested as an anti stalinist subversive in 1928 he completed Men in Prison and two other novels in semi captivity before he was rearrested and deported to the gulag in 1933 serge s classic prison novel has been compared to dostoyevsky s House of the Dead koestler s Spanish Testament genet s Miracle of the Rose and solzhenitsyn s One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovich both for its authenticity and its artistic achievement this edition features a substantial new introduction by translator richard greeman situating the work in serge s life and times it is old news that the conditions and policies of women s prisons are different from those for incarcerated men less evident however is how gender differences shape those policies and how gender identity and roles shape women s adaptation and resistance to prison culture and control the papers in this collection explore how the gender based attitudes that women bring to prison frame how they respond to the prison environment and how gender stereotypes continue to affect the treatment and opportunities of incarcerated women today it looks particularly at how the personal and social problems imported into the prison setting become part of the intricate web of prison culture and how extensively women s prison experience reflects the control and domination they experienced in the outside world
