originally published in 1971 this is a first hand account of how an old established county grammar school was transformed into a completely new upper school and community college in the leicestershire system from their experience the headmaster and staff have compiled the sort of book which they would have found most helpful giving a working account of their aims and objectives and the problems they encountered in this reorganization they discuss the failures and successes which they met in areas such as curriculum planning the school council the sixth form the uniform debate the less able children and the treatment of specialized subjects they also look at the special aspects of the institution including the design centre and the community college stewart mason director of education for leicestershire contributes a chapter on the leicestershire plan in the establishment of which he played a central part now bosworth academy this is a fascinating look at the history of how the school came to be learning objectives task setting and differentiation clarifies what each of these three skills are and explains their purpose it explores issues around and consequences of implementation of these skills practical application is discussed supported by examples and activities it encourages readers to assess their own implementation and progress by alaysing the tasks against standards with practical tips for working teachers and teachers in training this volume aims to equip them with the skills they need to formulate learning objectives set tasks and differentiate work for students more effectively in their classrooms
