the concept of religious freedom is the favoured modern human rights concept with which the modern world hopes to tackle the phenomenon of religious pluralism as our modern existence in an electronically shrinking globe comes to be increasingly characterised by this phenomenon to begin with the concept of religious freedom as embodied in article 18 of the universal declaration of human rights seems self evident in nature it is the claim of this book however that although emblematic on the one hand the concept is also problematic on the other and the implications of the concept of religious freedom are far from self evident despite the ready acceptance the term receives as embodying a worthwhile goal this book therefore problematizes the concept along legal constitutional ethical and theological lines and especially from the perspective of religious studies so that
