published in hamburg in 1867 das kapital critique of political economy part i das kapital kritik der politischen Ökonomie buch i is the first and only volume of marx's economic magnum opus completed and published during his lifetime subtitled the process of production of capital the work represents the culmination of over two decades of theoretical development and empirical research offering a systematic critique of the capitalist mode of production though ostensibly economic in focus the text is architected with a dialectical method that owes as much to hegelian metaphysics as to ricardo's classical economics the commodity is introduced not simply as a unit of trade but as a metaphysical paradox a thing that contains within it both a use value and an abstract value a duality that animates the entire logic of capital beneath the empirical treatment of factory conditions surplus value and labor time the text unfolds a grim metaphysical drama in which capital animated by accumulated labor moves through the world with a spectral autonomy the famous opening chapters dense with abstraction present the commodity form almost as a theological fetish a secularized idol that mediates all social relations and conceals the origin of its value in human labor here the hegelian logic of inversion the world turned upside down reappears in marx's description of capital as a social relation that presents itself as a thing and labor as a thing that presents itself as a social relation value itself becomes a ghostly presence immanent yet invisible moving according to laws that mirror the abstract unfolding of geist in hegel's system but now grounded in economic life rather than divine reason what emerges is not only a critique of political economy but a materialist metaphysics of modernity an exorcism of its hidden theological residues in the language of science this modern critical reader's edition includes an illuminating afterword tracing marx's intellectual relationships with revolutionary thinkers and philosophers including hegel feuerbach engels and ricardo containing unique research into his ideological development and economic metaphysical theories a comprehensive timeline of his life and works a glossary of marxist terminology and a detailed index of all of marx's writings this professional translation renders marx's dense dialectical prose into modern language to preserve the original force and precision of the text combined with the scholarly amplifying material this edition is an indispensable exploration of marx's classic works and his enduring hegelian protestant influence in the political religious economic and philosophical spheres the fourth edition of this popular combination text anthology integrates reading and writing skills the approach of read and respond is unique students are assessed for comprehension through summary writing rather than objective testing after summarizing an article students write a personal response because the summary and personal response are written in the students own words the instructor gains valuable insight into their vocabulary and writing ability as a result students develop proficiency in reading writing and critical thinking the new edition retains the best features of the previous editions it integrates reading and writing offers step by step progression includes models exercises and activities in each chapter and provides additional readings for practice new features include the following a new improved two color format plus overview maps of each chapter a new introductory chapter discussing the reading process and main types of reading tasks a new chapter offering a wide variety of methods to improve both general and specialized vocabulary the addition of content area readings and or excerpts from a college textbook in every chapter new articles for student reading practice in a new chapter entitled additional readings an increased emphasis and clarification of student goals outcomes and benefits the addition of self check review questions at the end of each chapter to help students review key concepts and consider personal applications of those concepts the fourth edition is complemented by a revised instructor's manual which provides an answer key for all activities proposed syllabi for a quarter and for a semester as well as teaching suggestions and strategies before the 1960s the goal of new testament textual criticism was singular to retrieve the original text of the new testament since then the goalpost has incrementally shifted away from the original text to retrieving any text or many texts of the nt some scholars have even concluded that the original text is hopelessly lost and cannot be retrieved with any confidence or accuracy other scholars have gone a step further to claim that the idea of an original text itself is a misconception that needs to be abandoned if this new approach in nttc is correct then the authority of scripture is weakened or no longer valid it will be shown in this book that such is not the case furthermore emphasis will be placed on the need to return to the traditional goalpost of nttc i e to retrieve the original text without a generally definitive text the door will be left wide open to recreate any desired text of the nt an unsettled original text will result in an unsettled biblical theology due to a lack of any authoritative and standard text consequently it will lead to an unsettled christian faith and practice
