research methodology a handbook is designed as a short introduction to the subject it is eminently practical in nature conceptual issues confusing the research scholar have been dealt with in a lucid manner the authors believe that even in the social sciences the mechanical or quantitative dimension should precede the sociological dimension before the social scientist begins to deal with verbal categories such as role status institution etc he should be in a position to appreciate the mechanical dimension familiarity with the mechanical dimension makes it possible for the research scholar to appreciate the fact that even when the dimension is sociological the elements of science such as validity and reproducibility come to the fore the book is based on material published over the last hundred years and the authors believe that the social sciences where cause and effect can still be separated in experienced time have not moved much beyond where they were several years ago richard barsam has given us as comprehensive a study of the origins and development of the nonfiction mode in motion pictures as we are ever likely to have in one volume he draws on all the major written sources and many which are little known and he shares with us many eloquent descriptions of the films themselves giving us a valuable textbook richard dyer maccann superb work historical journal of film radio and television the author reconceives composition studies from a bakhtinian perspective focusing on both the discipline s theoretical assumptions and its pedagogies halasek explores the implications of bakhtin s work and provides a model of scholarship balanced between practice and theory few composition scholars two decades ago would have imagined the rate at which their field is now developing expanding beyond its boundaries creating new alliances and locating new sites for research and generation of knowledge in their introduction to this volume farris and anson argue that faced with a welter of competing models compositionists too quickly dichotomize and dismiss the contributors to under construction therefore address themselves to the need for commerce among competing visions of the field they represent diverse settings and distinct points of view but their over riding interest is in promoting a view of the field that values interaction and mutual development above dogmatics and isolation
